

Best Chapter Award for the Spain Chapter of the IEEE Circuits and Systems Society

The Spain Chapter of the IEEE Circuits and Systems Society, chaired by Dr. Teresa Serrano Gotarredona, researcher at the Instituto de Microelectrónica de Sevilla, IMSE-CNM (CSIC/Universidad de Sevilla), received the Best Chapter Award of the IEEE-Spain Section in 2014. The awards ceremony took place in Madrid, on October 31, during the celebration of IEEE-DAY in Spain. The picture shows Prof. José M. de la Rosa (Chapter secretary and professor at the Universidad de Sevilla) receiving the award from the President of the IEEE-Spain Section, Prof. Emilio Corchado-Rodríguez (left), and the communications-activities coordinator, Prof. Jesús Fraile (right).
